

An Evening with Author, Journalist and
Grandson of Young Turk Leader Jemal Pasha
Hasan Cemal

“To deny the Genocide would mean to be an accomplice in this crime against humanity.”

Book Signing and Discussion

Join Hasan Cemal for the presentation of his bestselling book 1915: Armenian Genocide and accompany him on a courageous journey from ignorance to becoming a genocide recognizer.

In 1915: Armenian Genocide, which was written in response to the 2007 assassination of his friend Hrant Dink, Hasan Cemal presents his inner fight about the Armenian Genocide. He tells of his personal transformation from a believer in the official Turkish narrative to someone willing to take a stand and publish a book on his findings.

The presentation and discussion will be in English. The book is in Turkish.
